

Loopholes in the education sector caused actual social distance: Prof. Chinnappa Gowda

Loopholes in our education system have caused social distance among people. Without proper dissemination of knowledge and appropriate use of the human resource, over-dominance of science is not a good sign for the future, opined Karnataka Folklore University former vice-chancellor, Prof. Chinnappa Gowda.

Addressing the gathering as the chief guest of 152nd Founders' Day celebrations at University College Mangaluru, he said that the use of resources should be prioritized according to the need. With the implementation of the New Education Policy-2019, there may be positive changes in the next decade, he hoped.

Presiding over the event, Mangalore University Vice-Chancellor Prof. P Subrahmanya Yadapadithaya said that there is no need to doubt the proper implementation of the New Education policy. The Vice-Chancellor inaugurated the new main gate of the college on the occasion. A book on a 2-day National Conference organized by the PG studies in economics was released by the dignitaries.

Old students' Association President Col. Sharath Bhandary, Mangalore University Syndicate Board Member Ravichandra was present in the dais. Student Association Deputy Director Dr. A Harish welcomed the guest. Political Science HoD Dr. Latha A. Pandith and Sanskrit HoD Dr. Kumara Subrahmanya Bhat mastered the ceremony.
