PREAMBLE:

The Syndicate in reference cited at (1) had constituted a Committee to examine and report about the proposal to regularise the services of temporary fulltime Lecturers working in the University/Constituent Colleges. The report submitted by the Committee was placed before the Syndicate and the Syndicate in the reference cited at(2) after considering the services rendered by the temporary Lecturers for various periods of time and their contribution made to the management of teaching and research programmes has decided as follows:

"In view of their length of service, their contribution, their qualifications and the humanitarian aspect involved, the Syndicate resolves to take one time measure of appointing the persons mentioned in the list subject to the following guidelines:

1. Those who have put in two years of service with or without break, shall be considered for appointment, if they are otherwise qualified.

(Those people who have joined prior to revised U.G.C. norms and if they were qualified at the time of first appointment according to norms prevailing then, they shall also be considered).

2. All these appointments shall have the concurrence of Board of Appointments in respective subjects.
3. The appointments be given against the vacant posts that are available in the ratio of reservations, any excess claimed in any category should be compensated by making proportionate additional provision in the left out categories.
4. These are fresh appointments and the appointees shall be on probation for a period of two years and their work place could be either the P.G. Department or the Constituent Colleges.
5. They are not entitled to any kind of benefit because of past service and their service shall be counted from the date of reporting.
6. Those who are selected by the Board of Appointments through regular recruitment shall not be included in the one time appointment".

The following temporary Lecturers have appeared before the respective Board of Appointment Meeting held on 13.06.95 and are found suitable for appointment by the respective Board of Appointment. They are eligible to be appointed as Lecturers in accordance with the decision of the Syndicate under the above mentioned one time measure.

Hence this Order.

PREAMBLE:

The Syndicate in reference cited at (1) had constituted a Committee to examine and report about the proposal to regularise the services of temporary fulltime Lecturers working in the University/Constituent Colleges. The report submitted by the Committee was placed before the Syndicate and the Syndicate in the reference cited at(2) after considering the services rendered by the temporary Lecturers for various periods of time and their contribution made to the management of teaching and research programmes has decided as follows:

"In view of their length of service, their contribution, their qualifications and the humanitarian aspect involved, the Syndicate resolves to take one time measure of appointing the persons mentioned in the list subject to the following guidelines:

1. Those who have put in two years of service with or without break, shall be considered for appointment, if they are otherwise qualified.

(Those people who have joined prior to revised U.G.C. norms and if they were qualified at the time of first appointment according to norms prevailing then, they shall also be considered).

Principal
Mangalore 2

2. All these appointments shall have the concurrence of Board of Appointments in respective subjects.
3. The appointments be given against the vacant posts that are available in the ratio of reservations, any excess claimed in any category should be compensated by making proportionate additional provision in the left out categories.
4. These are fresh appointments and the appointees shall be on probation for a period of two years and their work place could be either the P.G. Department or the Constituent Colleges.
5. They are not entitled to any kind of benefit because of past service and their service shall be counted from the date of reporting.
6. Those who are selected by the Board of Appointments through regular recruitment shall not be included in the one time appointment".

The following temporary Lecturers have appeared before the respective Board of Appointment Meeting held on 13.06.95 and are found suitable for appointment by the respective Board of Appointment. They are eligible to be appointed as Lecturers in accordance with the decision of the Syndicate under the above mentioned one time measure.

Hence this Order.

ORDER NO. MU/EST(1)/CR 3/94-95, MANGALAGANGOTRI, Dt. 24.07.1995.
